

"Rethinking Science for the Anthropocene" a symposium following Jürgen Renn's The Evolution of Knowledge

May 16 (Monday), 2022

16:00 – 17:30 room 458 Gilman Building

Chair: Rivka Feldhay

Raef Zreik: Knowledge in/of/for Society.

Ariel Handel: Ecologies of Knowledge: Rethinking Localism in the Age of Global Crisis.

Yuval Kremitzer: Human, Nature: Notes on Philosophical Anthropology and Political Philosophy in light of the Anthropocene.

Discussion

Coffee Break

18:00 – 19:45 room 449 Gilman Building

Chair: Shaul Katzir

Rivka Feldhay: Introduction

Carmen Dege: On the Meaning of Ignorance for the Production of Knowledge — A Political Theory Perspective.

Gideon Freudenthal: Science as Social Labor. Some reflections.

Jürgen Renn: Comments

Discussion